WHY THE FAMILY IS IN NEED: This family is a close knit family that resides below the poverty level. They struggle tremendously to make ends meet. They have lived in family shelters across the state. They have always struggled with holiday expenses. There have been times the children did not have a single gift to open due to housing expenses and everyday necessities being a priority. These circumstances have put this family through some trying times. They are the type of family to give rather than take. They have always been extremely grateful with the resources provided to them in the past. Heather is a great mother who wants the best for her children.
